

Please keep the no-call policy as it is. It has been so nice to be able to get through a meal without receiving any number of phone calls that we're not interested in receiving. This has been great progress for citizens and consumers - please don't go backwards.